Kelly Hoppen for Davidson

From side tables to console tables, occasional tables, and cocktail tables, Kelly Hoppen for Davidson promises to elevate your space with unrivalled sophistication. The collection is comprised of four distinct product families—Moon, Drift, ZigZag, and Beam. Crafted from a meticulously curated selection of grey-toned and black timber veneers, coupled with high gloss lacquers in black, white, red, and green, these creations reflect a seamless blend of aesthetics and functionality.

*The West Coast
Collection with Anna Standish*

Consisting of the Palisades Side Cabinet, the Boulevard Armchair, and, of course, the Malibu Coffee Table, the West Coast Collection takes its design cues from the explosive artistic movement of 1970s America, specifically the West Coast and California. As such, the West Coast Collection is a celebration of innovative materials, distinct shapes, and explosive colours, combined with DAVIDSON's commitment to bespoke furniture of exceptional quality.

The Wanderlust Collection

The vibrant Wanderlust Collection draws inspiration from beautiful and iconic parts of the world that are held personally close and special to the heart of the DAVIDSON team. This was depicted by the rich and vibrant choice of colours that they were associated with and evoked a strong sense of reminiscence and sensuality. The collection comes in a modern and trend-setting array of colours, sizes and shapes.
